

LESSON 11

Learn Distress Signals

Raising and lowering arms A black stick figure with its arms raised. Dashed lines and arrows indicate the motion of raising and lowering the arms.	Orange smoke flare (use during the day) A cylindrical orange smoke flare with a wavy line representing smoke rising from the top.	Red smoke flare (use during the night) A cylindrical red smoke flare with a wavy line representing smoke rising from the top.	Torch A rectangular torch with a lens on the front and a handle on the back.	Orange V Sheet A rectangular sheet with a white 'V' shape in the center.	EPIRB (radio distress beacon) A cylindrical EPIRB (Emergency Position Indicating Radio Beacon) with an antenna on top and the letters 'EPIRB' on the side.
--	---	---	--	--	--

These are some signals you can use to attract attention if in trouble.

Draw yourself in the boat using one of these signals.

